AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Diana was raised on the hidden island of Themyscira, home to the Amazon race of warrior women created by the Greek gods to protect humankind. In the distant past, Ares the god of war slew all his fellow gods, but his father Zeus struck him down. Before succumbing to his injuries, Zeus left the Amazons a weapon capable of killing his renegade son: the "Godkiller". Diana's mother Queen Hippolyta believes that Ares will never return & forbids Diana from training as a warrior, but Diana & her aunt General Antiope defy the queen & begin training in secret. Now Diana feels that to complete her adulthood & gain the respect of her mother, she must journey into the world of men to fight evil, find Ares & visit retribution on him for his crimes.
